

*You are Warmly Invited to Join Marwa and Baby Adam
For their Blessingway Ceremony*

Marwa is from Egypt and is pregnant with her first baby, Adam. Through dream work, meditation and intuition, they have understood the way in which to care for themselves. They have chosen to bring Adam into the world with an Unassisted Home Lotus Birth! I fully support their choice!

Marwa invites you to share your own birthing wisdom and love with an offering; sending a special bead and written blessing for their ceremony. Marwa will keep these blessings and the necklace sewn with the individual threaded beads and show them to Adam when he is older, so that they can remember the people who celebrated with them, from places all over the world, their intimate and empowering journey to birth.

If you would like to join us, please send your chosen bead (being sure that the bead hole is large enough for a strong piece of cord to go through) and your hand written blessings to Marwa and Adam at the beginning of March so they can all be received by mid-march for a virtual Blessingway. Marwa will set a date and time and we can consciously send our energy to them. This is something you can do while continuing with your daily life by keeping her in your heart-thoughts and you might like to simply pause for a moment or two and send a beam of positive energy to surround them with your gorgeous feminine love and light!

Thank you beautiful sisters! Love from Cheroona x
